Must be 21 years of age.

II. RESPONSIBILITY

Incumbent performs a wide variety of recurring duties according to standardized Departmental policies and police procedures, selects applicable methods to take authoritative action in response to situational demands. Errors in decision or work are generally prevented through legally devised procedure, supervisory review, and standard bookkeeping checks. Undetected errors may result in injury or endangerment to self or others, have adverse effects upon department operations, and/or cause inconvenience to members of the public.

Incumbent works with a formal schedule of duties, determining work priorities with Shift Supervisor for effectively addressing situational demands. Incumbent's work is periodically reviewed at critical phases, through random checks, and upon completion of specific duties for adherence to instructions and guidelines, compliance with legal requirements and Departmental policies and procedures, technical accuracy, and soundness of judgement.

III. PERSONAL WORK RELATIONSHIPS

Incumbent maintains frequent contact with Department superiors, inmates, representatives of other law enforcement department and agencies and members of the general public for a variety of purposes, including assisting with coordination of jail operations, effective and safe transport of inmates, and enforcement of applicable laws.

Non-routine relationships with inmates to gain concurrence with laws in situations that jeopardize public's and incumbent's safety.

Incumbent reports directly to Shift supervisor, and the Assistant Jail commander in the Shift Supervisor's absence.

IV. PHYSICAL EFFORT AND WORK ENVIRONMENT

Incumbent performs duties both in an office environment and the jail and is frequently exposed to hazards associated with jail operations, such as violent individuals and communicable disease. No prolonged extreme physical demands are associated with normal duties or assignments, but may be required during emergency situations.
